DEPARTMENT OF STANDARDS MALAYSIA

DEVELOPMENT OF MALAYSIAN STANDARDS

The Department of Standards Malaysia (DSM) is the national standardisation and accreditation body.

The main function of the Department is to foster and promote standards, standardisation and accreditation as a means of advancing the national economy, promoting industrial efficiency and development, benefiting the health and safety of the public, protecting the consumers, facilitating domestic and international trade and furthering international cooperation in relation to standards and standardisation.

Malaysian Standards are developed through consensus by committees which comprise of balanced representation of producers, users, consumers and others with relevant interests, as may be appropriate to the subject in hand. To the greatest extent possible, Malaysian Standards are aligned to or are adoption of international standards. Approval of a standard as a Malaysian Standard is governed by the Standards of Malaysia Act 1996 (Act 549). Malaysian Standards are reviewed periodically. The use of Malaysian Standards is voluntary except in so far as they are made mandatory by regulatory authorities by means of regulations, local by-laws or any other similar ways.

The Department of Standards appoints SIRIM Berhad as the agent to develop Malaysian Standards. The Department also appoints SIRIM Berhad as the agent for distribution and sale of Malaysian Standards.

FOREWORD

This Malaysian Standard was developed by the Technical Committee on Management Systems from Islamic Perspectives under the authority of the Industry Standards Committee on Halal Standards.

The requirements of MS ISO 9001:2000 (identical with ISO 9001:2000) are given in boxed text in this standard, followed by relevant requirements from the Islamic perspectives.

For the purposes of this Malaysian Standard, the references stated under NOTE of the original text of the MS ISO 9001:2000 for:

- a) 7.6 shall read as 'See ISO 10012 for guidance';
- b) 8.2.2 shall read as 'See ISO 19011 for guidance'; and
- c) references to International Standards stated in the boxed text under NOTE for 7.6 and 8.2.2 should be replaced by equivalent Malaysian Standards as follows:

Referenced International Standards

Corresponding Malaysian Standards

ISO 10012:2003, Measurement management systems – Requirements for measurement processes and measuring equipment

MS ISO 10012:2003, Measurement management systems – Requirements for measurement processes and measuring equipment

ISO 19011:2002, Guidelines for quality and/or environmental management systems auditing

MS ISO 19011:2003, Guidelines for quality and/or environmental management systems auditing

Compliance with a Malaysian Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.
